

Privacy Policy

Organizing Committee for the 2020 Pro Bono Legal Advice & Representation Service and the Japan Sports Arbitration Agency have established this privacy policy to comply with the Act on the Protection of Personal Information (“APPI”) and other related laws and ordinances. We will make our best efforts to handle your personal information properly.

1. Collection of Personal Information

We will lawfully and properly collect personal information to the extent necessary to achieve the purpose of use of such personal information.

2. Purpose of Use of Personal Information

We will use personal information only for the purpose of providing Pro Bono Legal Advice and Representation Service for the Tokyo 2020 Olympic and Paralympic Games (the “Service”) including the following:

- (i) Checking your eligibility to use the Service;
- (ii) Contacting you from us, pro bono lawyers and translators; and
- (iii) Preparing a report regarding the Service using anonymised information.

3. Safety Measures for Handling of Personal Data

We will take necessary and proper measures and will manage personal data properly in order to prevent leakage or loss of any personal data that we hold. We will also properly supervise our staffs in their handling of personal data and, if we entrust the handling of personal data to any third party, monitor the entrusted third party so that the entrusted third party properly manages the personal data.

4. Transfer of Personal Data to Third Parties

We will not transfer personal data to any third party without the consent of the relevant persons except as otherwise provided for by, or permitted under, laws or ordinances.

5. Request for the Notification of the Purpose of Use, Disclosure, Rectification or Suspension of Use of Personal Data

If we are requested from a person pursuant to the APPI to notify the purpose to use, disclose, rectify, add, delete, suspend to use, or stop transferring to any third party any personal data that we hold, we will confirm that such person is the person of the relevant personal data and respond to such request properly in accordance with the APPI.
